

Plans for GWADW 2015

Stan Whitcomb

For Syd Meshkov and Francesco Fidecaro

- Alaska!
 - » Syd visited possible venues earlier this month
 - » Is negotiating with some “nice” hotels
- Possible dates May 17-23
 - » Definitely NOT May 24-29
 - » Should have dates nailed down soon

Program for GWADW 2015

- This has been the largest GWADW ever
 - » Are we a victim of our success?
- Is it losing its interactive character?
 - » We used to be willing to completely adjust the program in the middle to make room for new ideas or topics
- Should we do anything to the format to try to recover that?
 - » Emphasize a more limited set of topics each year but change the topics from year to year?
 - » Set aside some time for small group interactions on specific topics?
- Send suggestions to Syd and Francesco

See You Next Year in Alaska!
